Prepared March 2026 · For John Velazquez & Alyssa Jardin

THE OPPORTUNITY

7,800 students. Zero quality late-night coffee.

Arpeggio on the Go sits minutes from UMass Dartmouth and Bristol Community College — but right now, those students don't know you exist. Here's the data.

THE PROBLEM

Google can't find you in Dartmouth.

We searched the exact terms your future customers type. Arpeggio doesn't appear in any of them. Every day this goes unfixed, customers walk into competitors instead.

Mirasol's (1,600 reviews), Library Cafe, and Boujee Bean dominate. Arpeggio is invisible to the 7,800 students searching this.

Only Dunkin' shows up as 24-hour. This is YOUR differentiator — and Google doesn't know about it.

NOT FOUND

Java Shack (259 reviews), Mirasol's, and Boujee Bean own this search. Arpeggio doesn't appear on the map.

FOUND

Great news coverage from the launch. But nobody searches your name — they search "coffee near me."

WEBSITE COMPARISON

Your website vs. the competition.

Side by side: what customers see when they find you online vs. what they see from Java Shack.

NEEDS WORK

Wix template. No Dartmouth location mentioned. Gmail contact. Delivery buttons prominent but no brand story. No mention of 24/7 hours, grab-and-go format, or app ordering.

POLISHED

Clean design, hero photography, clear online ordering CTA, social links, organized menu navigation. Professional brand presence.

DIGITAL SCORECARD

Where you stand today.

An honest assessment of every digital channel. Red = urgent. Green = strong.

CHANNEL	GRADE	CURRENT STATE	WHAT'S MISSING
Google Business (NB)	B	4.5 stars, decent reviews	Needs fresh photos, regular Google Posts
Google Business (Dartmouth)	D	Minimal presence, not ranking for any local searches	Full optimization: categories, photos, Q&A, posts, reviews

Website	C	Wix site, functional but basic. No Dartmouth page.	Brand story, Dartmouth landing page, app ordering integration
Instagram	C	Account exists, inconsistent posting	Consistent content calendar, Reels, student-targeted content
TikTok	F	No presence	7,800 students are on TikTok. One viral waffle video = huge awareness.
Email / SMS	F	No list, no campaigns	Loyalty program, weekly specials, event announcements
Local SEO	D	Not ranking for key Dartmouth searches	"coffee near UMass," "24 hour cafe Dartmouth," "late night coffee"
Review Strategy	D	Dartmouth location has very few reviews	Goal: 100 reviews in 60 days. QR codes at counter. Response protocol.

COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

You have the product. They have the visibility.

Google Reviews are the #1 factor in local search ranking. Here's where Arpeggio stands against Dartmouth competitors.

COMPETITOR	LATE NIGHT?	GRAB & GO?	APP ORDERING?	LIVE EVENTS?	WEAKNESS
Mirasol's	No (closes 7pm)	Yes	No	No	No evening presence at all
Java Shack	No (closes 4pm)	Yes	Yes	No	Closes at 4pm. Zero evening market.
Dunkin'	Yes (24hr)	Yes	Yes	No	Corporate, commodity coffee, no experience
Boujee Bean	No (closes 4pm)	Yes	No	No	Only 18 reviews. Very new.
Arpeggio ✨	YES (24/7 planned)	YES	YES	YES (patio music)	Visibility only ↑ Arpeggio wins on EVERY feature. The only gap is online visibility.

TIMELINE

How fast you'll see results.

Week 1-2

Dartmouth location appears on Google Maps with optimized listing. Student discount campaign launches. QR review cards at counter. You start appearing in "coffee near me" searches.

Week 3-4

Review velocity pushes you up in local rankings. Instagram content drives student awareness. First Reel/TikTok of waffle-on-a-stick gets shared. Daily customer count starts climbing.

Month 2

Google recognizes the review pattern and starts surfacing Arpeggio in local pack results. Monthly promo campaigns drive repeat visits. Students tell friends.

Month 3-4

Word of mouth + digital visibility compound. Late-night positioning established. Patio events draw weekend crowds. Revenue trajectory bends upward permanently.

Month 6

Arpeggio is the default answer to "where should we get coffee?" for UMass students. Email list at 1,000+. Google reviews at 200+. The growth is now self-sustaining.

Let's fill Dartmouth.

The location is great. The product is great. The only thing missing is visibility. Let's fix that — starting this week.

No commitment. No contracts. Just results.
If the first 2 weeks don't drive measurable traffic, you don't pay for month 2.
